Re: Report of SA RAYMOND L. JOHNSON at Milwaukee dated
July 9, 1969.

During the course of investigation of captioned matter, WILLIAM LOUIS DE SAUTEL, who was the thenholder of the liquor license at the Club 13, Silver Street, Hurley, Wisconsin, furnished the enclosed 2 advertising cartoons of the Club 13. He said there was a box of the advertising cartoons behind the bar when he took license to the place. He claimed he did not know where they were printed and had nothing to do with any interstate transportation of same, pointing out that the advertisements were at the bar and if a customer asked for one, he was furnished one. He said he did not consider the advertisements to be obscene and that he had observed one of the cartoons in a book entitled "Sex to Sixty".

The FBI Laboratory is requested to examine the enclosed two Club 13 advertising cartoons to determine where same was printed, if possible.

The cartoons should be returned to Milwaukee as one of the subjects of this case is presently under indictment and it is possible the cartoons may be used in connection with trial of LOIS GASBARRI.

Re: Report of SA RAYMOND L. JOHNSON at Milwaukee dated
7/9/69 and Chicago airtel to Milwaukee dated 7/11/69.

Referenced Chicago airtel (serial 575) reflects ANTON DE GEORGIO, Chicago, Illinois admitted to being a front for JOHN GASBARRI, aka Jackpot, from about 1961 to 1963 when he, DE GEORGIO, held the license for Club 13 at Hurley, Wisconsin. He said he held the license as a favor for GASBARRI and received $50 a week salary from the Club while holding the license.

Chicago suggested that consideration be given to violation of form 11 which falls under jurisdiction of the Alcohol & Tobacco Tax Unit and is a felony violation. Chicago pointed out that inasmuch as DE GEORGIO admits fronting for GASBARRI it would appear that GASBARRI submitted a fraudulent special tax return in direct violation of form 11 and could be subject to successful prosecution.

It is suspected, but no definite proof has been established, that subsequent holders of the license at the Club 13 were also merely fronts for JACK GASBARRI. The current license holder at the Club 13 is MERVIN BRUNEAU, Hurley, Wisconsin, who was interviewed by the writer has reflected in referenced report. He denied being offered $50 a week for take out the license in his name and claimed he had planned to operate the Club 13, however, he didn't even know who owned the building and had no discussions with the then license holders relative to acquiring the beer and liquor and other stock of the Club 13.

1Date July 14, 1969

The following interview was conducted telephonically with ANTON DE GEORGIO, inasmuch as he declined to make an appointment for a personal interview. DE GEORGIO, however, furnished the following information telephonically to Special Agent (SA) JOHN R. BASSETT:

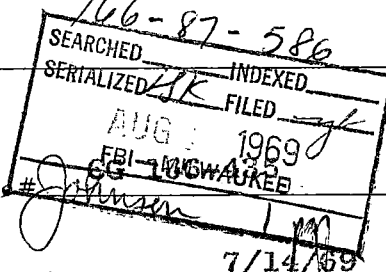

DE GEORGIO stated that he was born on March 3, 1923, at Hurley, Wisconsin, and currently resides at 4526 North Sheridan Road, and could be recontacted at Chicago telephone number 334-9811. He advised that he is a double amputee, and was recently released from the Veteran Research Hospital at Chicago, following a double hernia operation.

DE GEORGIO explained that from approximately 1961, to 1963, he held the license for the Club Thirteen at Hurley, Wisconsin, however, never spent any time in the club. He stated that he was born in Hurley, Wisconsin, and had known JOHN GASBARRI for a long time. He stated as a result he held the license for the Club Thirteen as a favor for GASBARRI, and was just a front for him. He further stated he received about $50.00 a week salary from the club while holding this license.

By re Chicago airtel to Milwaukee, dated July 11, 1969, Chicago pointed out, in connection with ANTON DE GEORGIO holding the license for the Club 13 as a front for JACK GASBARRI, that consideration be given to violation of Form 11, which falls under jurisdiction of the Alcohol and Tobacco Tax Unit and is a felony violation. Chicago stated inasmuch as DE GEORGIO admits fronting for GASBARRI, it would appear GASBARRI submitted a fraudulent special tax return in direct violation of Form 11 and could be subject of successful prosecution. It is to be noted DE GEORGIO held the license for the Club 13 from 1961 to 1963. Milwaukee is pursuing this matter with Alcohol and Tobacco Tax Division.

DETAILS:

On July 23, and 28, 1969, Assistant United States Attorney JOHN E. CLARKE, Western District of Wisconsin, Madison, Wisconsin, advised arraignment date for LOIS LOUISE GASBARRI had not been set. He said it appeared that Attorney DOMINIC FRINZI of Milwaukee, Wisconsin, will represent her.

On August 25, 1969, Mr. CLARKE stated arraignment of LOIS GASBARRI had been scheduled for September 4, 1969. Her attorney had indicated that he would like trial to be at Superior, Wisconsin.

MI 166-87

On September 5, 1969, Mr. CLARKE stated LOIS GASBARRI was arraigned in United States District Court, Madison, Wisconsin, on September 4, 1969, pled not guilty to all three counts in the indictment and her attorney asked for time to make motions. He was given until October 1, 1969, to make same.

The following investigation was conducted by SA JOHN J. MARKEY, at Milwaukee, in an attempt to ascertain the present whereabouts of PATRICIA RAYBURN and ROSE MARIE PERKINS:

On July 31, 1969, Miss BETTY FOSTER, [REDACTED] was recontacted at her residence concerning the present whereabouts of PATRICIA and ROSE.

b6

FOSTER stated she had no knowledge of the present whereabouts of RAYBURN, and FOSTER believes that RAYBURN is not in Milwaukee because if RAYBURN were in Milwaukee, she would surely contact FOSTER.

FOSTER stated that she last saw ROSE, whom FOSTER knows as [REDACTED], on July 23, 1969, when [REDACTED] accompanied FRENCHY GASBARRI [REDACTED] to Milwaukee from Hurley, Wisconsin. They traveled to Milwaukee for the purpose of consulting with their attorney, DOMINIC FRINZI. [REDACTED] told FOSTER that she was still residing in Hurley, Wisconsin, and was returning to Hurley that evening. FOSTER has had no additional contact with [REDACTED]

b6
b7C

On July 23, 1969, Mr. DONALD RAYBURN, [REDACTED] [REDACTED], advised he had received a telephone call from his daughter, PATRICIA, on July 9, 1969. PAT RAYBURN advised her father that she was in Portland, Oregon, [REDACTED]

[REDACTED] RAYBURN furnished her address as [REDACTED] [REDACTED] Portland, Oregon, telephone [REDACTED]

RAYBURN stated that he has since telephoned the above number and was told by an unknown individual that

MI 166-87

PATRICIA had left. RAYBURN stated that if he develops any additional information concerning his daughter, he will notify the FBI immediately.

The Minneapolis Division advised that LOIS GASBARRI was arrested September 6, 1962, in St. Paul, Minnesota, for violation of the White Slave Traffic Act. She was tried in October, 1962, was found guilty on one count of Inducing a Woman to Travel In Interstate Commerce for Immoral Purpose, but was granted a motion for a judgement of acquittal on November 20, 1962.

MI 166-87

For the information of United States Attorney, Madison, Wisconsin, the activities of DE GEORGIO fronting for GASBARRI may have caused GASBARRI to submit a fraudulent special tax return in violation of Form 11 under the jurisdiction of the Alcohol and Tobacco Tax Division.

It was previously reported that WILLIAM DE SAUTEL, then license holder at the Club 13, Hurley, Wisconsin, furnished two advertising cartoons, which DE SAUTEL said he did not consider obscene.

The results of examination of these cartoons by the FBI Laboratory is as follows:

On 9/30/69 while writer and SA JOHNSON were travelling south on U.S. 51, about five miles south of Hurley, Wis., the writer observed what appeared to be VITICH's car driving north on 51. The writer turned Buick around and returned to Hurley just in time to observe at 12:07 p.m. JAMES VITICH, an unknown white male (presumed to be ELLEN VITICH's brother), and a white female in car [redacted] getting out of VITICH's car behind the French Casino. It is presumed that this girl will either work for VITICH as a prostitute or as a Go Go Girl as [redacted] is talking or getting a Go Go girl. It is also presumed that JAMES VITICH and the girl must have spent the night at THOMAS CHILDS's home in Winocqua, Wis. or a nearby motel and that VITICH and the girl travelled from Milwaukee to Winocqua with CHILDS.

Records of North Central Airlines, Gogebic County Airport, Ironwood, Mich were reviewed on 9/30/69 to determine if same indicated the unknown prostitute left 9/28 via airplane. Only one male left for Milwaukee on the 3:35 p.m. flight. On the 7/25 a.m. flight there were three females who left for Milwaukee, i.e. Miss M. Rooney, Mrs. Baker, and one Mrs. Gabrielsen (tel # [REDACTED] ROONEY AND BAKER did not leave a calling number. [REDACTED])

The above is for info of SA MARNEY who has leads to locate and interview the prostitutes formerly at the French Casino. It will be noted that apparently Carol and [REDACTED] are now at the Club 13. The writer has discussed with AUSA JOE CLARKE, Madison, Wis. the advisability of Agents entering the Club 13 or French Casino to interview the prostitutes at this time in view of the pending trials in 16-87 and 166-174. LOIS GASBARRI is the former wife of JOHN GASBARRI. LOIS GASBARRI operates the Club 13, Silver Street, Hurley, although the license has been in the names of others for years. It has long been suspected that JOHN GASBARRI, who operates the Club Carnival, located across the street from the Club 13, is benefiting from the prostitution at the Club 13 and that it is operated by fronts for him; however, no evidence has been developed to substantiate this, as it appears that only JOHN and LOIS GASBARRI would know of details of their arrangements. Reairtels reflect one of the fronts used by JOHN GASBARRI. Informants at Hurley, in the past and in 1969, have stated that different people have been offered $50 per week to hold the Club 13 license in their names, with no work being required on their part.

At the present time there are two or three prostitutes operating at the Club 13. One has been identified, i.e. ROSE PERKINS, who has been there for over a year. In the past few weeks two others have been there. One by the name of CAROL and another by the name of DOTTIE.

LOIS GASBARRI was indicted by FGJ, 7/1/69, for violation of ITAR - PROSTITUTION Statute. She pled not guilty. Trial date has not yet been set.

The French Casino, 19 Silver Street, Hurley, [redacted] is operated by JAMES ROBERT VITICH and wife, ELLEN MAXINE VITICH. They, on a continuing basis, have prostitutes who come mostly from Milwaukee, Wisconsin. At the present time they have two prostitutes operating. It is suspected that the VITICHes pay off to someone, possibly JOHN GASBARRI, in order to operate, as they are in competition with the Club 13. JOHN GASBARRI is a close friend of Iron County District Attorney ALEX RAINERI.
